

The Fault In Our Stars* by Scott Neustadter & Michael H. Weber

JULIE: Hi. I'm Julie. 15. Hodgkin's Lymphoma. It's been an ok week I guess. I've been sleeping better. More energy. I don't feel as sluggish as I used to. So far, everyone seems pleased with my results. But it's hard, you know. My friends are at school, they have parties on weekends. I can't help but feel I'm missing out. I should be grateful, I know that, I just... it's hard, that's all. It's hard.*
